

WE HOLD THESE TRUTHS

Jeremiah Ariaz

We Hold These Truths is a selection of photographs made across the U.S. during the Trump presidency. Drawn from the Declaration of Independence, the title implicates “We” the viewer as an active participant, acknowledging the collective responsibility shared in our democracy. The photographs reveal the anxiety felt across the nation and speak to this historic moment, as tensions run increasingly high in the run-up to the 2020 presidential election.

Telephone, Russell County, KS, 2020

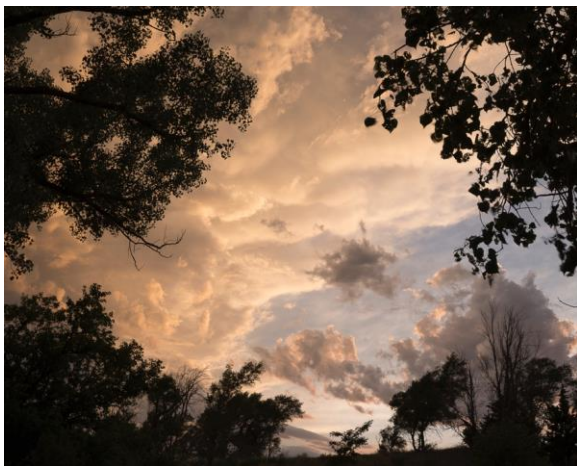

Shopping Center, Baton Rouge, LA, 2020.

Monument Valley Navajo Tribal Park, Arizona, 2018

Gary, Main Street, Great Bend, KS, 2020.

Approaching Storm, Kansas, 2020

Eric, Russell County, Kansas, 2020.

Gretta, Russell County, Kansas, 2020

Sublette, KS, 2020.

*Former Darkroom, Haskell County Monitor-Chief,
Sublette, KS, 2020.*

T'Shawna, Tucumcari, NM, 2018

Wildfire, Idaho, 2016

Debris, New Mexico, 2018

US 163, Utah, 2018

Window, Kansas, 2020

Scarlett, Ellinwood, KS (Listening to the Supreme Court Decision Guaranteeing Civil Rights Protection for Gay and Transgender People), 2020.

Chair, Tucumcari, NM, 2018

Wilder on Front Porch, Douglas County, Kansas, 2020.

Mortuary, Zachary, LA, 2020

Aftermath of Hurricane Sally, Alabama (I), 2020

Aftermath of Hurricane Sally, Alabama (II), 2020

Florida Coastline, Nightfall, 2020

Exhibition Photographs:

Archival pigment prints on fine art rag paper.

16 x 20 inch, edition of 7 ($600 unframed)

32 x 40 inch, edition of 5 ($1200 unframed)

40 x 50 inch, edition of 3 ($1900 unframed)

Exhibition photographs available in each size and on luster paper for framing. (plus shipping and handling charges.)